

Allegiance Unravels Book Club Questions

1. Did you like learning about Sergeant Bowen's backstory?
2. Should the sergeant have listened to Dr. Noori when she first approached him in the mess hall to talk about her concerns?
3. Was the sergeant's judgement clouded by his awe of working with a high-ranking official (the general)?
4. Should the sergeant have encouraged his wife to visit him on base?
5. Was Sergeant Bowen right to volunteer to be injected with the serum in his attempt to save Dr. Noori from that fate?
6. What do you think could have happened if the sergeant confessed his concerns to Chara?
7. Do you think the outcome could have been any different if the sergeant had made an effort to form relationships with his peers on the base?
8. Should Sergeant Bowen have tried to contact his superior at Fort Meade for advice?
9. Do you think Sergeant Bowen confronted the general as a way to clear his own conscience, or do you think he actually believed the general might listen and act upon his concerns?
10. Could the sergeant have done more to try to find his missing cell phone?
11. Were there any other ways Sergeant Bowen could have tried to his wife?
12. Was there anything the sergeant could have done to stop the plan once it was in motion?
13. Do you believe that getting a message to his wife through Quinn and Riley was a good idea?
14. Do you think the general will ever consider Sergeant Bowen's assignment complete?
15. Did you like the book?